FACULTY

To the Class of 1938:

It has been a new experience to all of you, and to me as well, to work in this fine new building of ours. You have had the privilege and the honor of setting standards here which other classes will follow. My congratulations to you on the fine work that you have done. In the new work to which you are going you will be successful if you follow your own established standards. My best wishes go with all of you.

JAMES A. CHALMERS.

CLASS OFFICERS

Loring Edwards Harkness

*To an excellent student and comrade
To one of nature, so true and so glad.*

Here's a rare combination of brawn and brains. As co-captain of our football team and our class president, Loring has been a well liked and capable leader. He starred not only on the football field but in the class room as well, managing to gain highest rank on the honor roll in spite of his work in various activities. Junior-Senior Reception, Junior Prom, Class Color Committee, Handbook, Class Banner 3, Football, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Junior-Senior Relay 3, 4, French Club, Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Eleanor Louise Nash

*A smile for all, a welcome glad,
A jovial coaxing way she had.*

Eleanor, our worthy vice-president, is one of the few students in the class of '38 who possess personality plus. She is always bubbling over with joy, and was never found to be a dull companion. She has also established herself as a poet of no mean quality. Who knows but that she may prove to be another Edna St. Vincent Millay? French Club 2, Color, Ring, Junior Prom, Motto, Dance and Junior-Senior Reception Committees 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Senior Prom and Senior Party 4, Red and Gray 3, 4, Senior Class Play 4, Round Table 4.

Jessie Margaret Allen

*A merry amiable little lass
Beloved by all our senior class.*

Jessie is the cute, dark-haired secretary of the senior class. She has so many admirers that it's almost impossible to keep track of them. She dances very well and with Frank Romano she won a prize at the Halloween dance as the best waltzer. French Club 3, Junior-Senior Reception 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Leo Dunn

None but himself can be his parallel.

Leo, our class treasurer, had much hard work to do but it has all been done very successfully. Although, because of a leg injury, he did not take a prominent part in sports his senior year, Leo was always present at our athletic as well as our social activities. A good student, who possesses admirable qualities, he was well liked by both faculty and class. Football 2, 3, Basketball 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Business Manager Red and Gray 3, 4, Junior-Senior Relay 3, Debating Club, Senior Class Play, and Marshal 4.

Paul Sam Aisi

*He who is honest is noble,
Whatever his fortunes may be.*

Paul, in his senior year, was one of the candidates for the football squad. Although he never achieved great fame, he was a faithful member of the squad, and was usually seen in the company of Marella. Football 4.

Michael Sylvester Altieri

Oh who can forget the mild light of his smile?

Mike hails from the neighborhood of Rollstone Hill, but can usually be found with Mike Spylios. His favorite spots seem to be West Street and the Spylios' fruit store in Leominster. We wonder if it's a love of fruit or friendship that unites Mike and Spylios. Basketball 4.

Rudolph Leonard Altonen

A true friend is forever a friend.

Rudolph is one whose interests are centered outside of school. Although he appears to be very quiet, he enjoys a good time with his friends. Rudolph is an ardent sports fan, and spends much of his time playing basketball at the Y. M. C. A.

Jerome Marvin Asher

Slow and deliberate was his manner.

Hail to the President of our Dramatic Club! He has appeared many times on the stage as an exceptionally fine interpreter of character. He is capable, trustworthy, honest, and good sport, qualities which make Jerry, perhaps, the best liked and best known boy in our class. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, President Dramatic Club 4, Senior Class Play 4.

Margaret Louise Abell

*Not too serious, not too gay,
A very good friend in every way.*

Peg is a great basketball enthusiast and plays a very good game. In her spare time she makes herself useful by being a mother's helper. Peg swims well and has, because of it, acquired a lovely tan. Altogether she is a great sport. Basketball, Volleyball 2, 3, 4, Hockey 4, Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Helen Rosalie Adams

To be merry becomes you.

We wonder where Helen gets those humorous songs of which she has such a grand store, and also her thoroughly hearty laugh. Helen skates, draws and loves to chew gum. Her attitude toward school may not be a studious one but we can assure you that Helen enjoys herself in other ways.

Helen Mary Antonelli

*She does well, acts nobly,
Angels could do no more.*

Helen is a very quiet miss but, nevertheless, has many friends and is liked by all. She does not participate in many school activities but we know she is kept busy in her outside circle. Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Jennie Ann Anzalone

Her worth beams from her dark brown eyes.

Jennie is a jolly girl with a reserved air. Not a strange combination either, since it gives her a delightful manner. Another asset is her dark curly hair, which caused great envy. Hockey 3, Basketball, Volleyball 2, 3, 4.

Robert Deane Ashline

*The kind of fellow who doesn't shirk,
And is always ready to do his work.*

How this tall, curly haired student can attain and maintain a place on the high honor list with little apparent work and effort, is far beyond our comprehension. His ready smile and pleasant manner have with ease given him a high social ranking, too. Football 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, Junior-Senior Reception 3, Councillor 4.

Charles Vernon Barry

Music has charms alone for peaceful minds.

Charlie, a member of the band and the orchestra, is a future maestro, as he is endowed with an unusual love of music. Another gift which gives pleasure both to him and his audience is his ability to recite the lives of many famous composers and a list of their works. Curly-headed Charlie and his trumpet are an inseparable pair. Orchestra, Band 2, 3, 4.

Lyman Murray Bates

In both diligence and silence there is safety.

Lyman is our six-foot star football player. He is one of our best all-around athletes. Although he spends much time in sports he manages to get his homework done. His popularity is due to his fine sportsmanship. Baseball 2, Football, Basketball 2, 3, 4.

Alexander George Bean

A goodly share of laughter in his eye.

Our Alexander is very well acquainted with many of the fairer sex in the class. He is not a shining light in studies, but is an ardent promoter of school socials. Although he is an usher at a local theatre, on his night off he goes to see a movie. French Club 2, Co-Manager Football 4.

Jacqueline Margaret Babineau

*A face with gladness overspread
Soft smiles by human kindness bred.*

Jackie is one of our ardent movie fans, one of whose hobbies is collecting pictures of movie stars, particularly the opposite sex. Besides attending the movies, she spends some time listening to stories on the radio, and also manages to spare a little time for her homework. French Club 2.

Evelyn Mary Bartholomew

Still waters run deep.

Polite and friendly, Evelyn has been a real friend. She has proved herself very capable in the Commercial Course. This small, unassuming miss has also made a very able secretary for Miss Sherwin this past year.

Ardis Elizabeth Bascomb

Enthusiasm is the life of my soul.

Seen and heard fits Ardis's type to a T. She is one of the girls who belong on the attractive side of our class as well as on the noisy side. The days she is absent are days of solitude for Helen, her side kick. Ardis plans to continue her work as a telephone operator when she graduates. Basketball, Dramatic Club, Readers' Guild, Art Club, French Club 4.

Mary Battistella

Her worth is warrant for her welcome.

Mary, one of our part-time students, has a very pleasant smile and dark hair which certainly make her attractive. She is rather quiet in school, but that does not stop her from making many friends. This past year we have not seen so much of Mary as she worked every other week for Mr. Otis. Volleyball 2, 3.

Raymond Joseph Begnoche

Strongest minds are often those of whom the noisy world hears least.

Raymond is one of our frivolous youths. He is always gay and merry, whatever the outlook may be. He is known for his humorous remarks and can take a joke as well as make one. He is fond of all outdoor sports.

Raymond Joseph Benoit

Of every noble work, the silent is best.

Ray waited for a track team since he was a freshman, but he suffered a disappointment each year. He was also a member of our football team for three years. His interest in athletics is surpassed only by his interest in school work. A part-time student, he worked in the cafeteria where he helped prepare some of those Lucullan meals. Football 4.

William Joseph Berube

The wise for cure, on experience depend.

Bill has a propensity for solitariness which is seldom broken by any effort on his part. He does not take part in many of the school activities, but can often be seen with a group of boys in his spare moments.

Ralph Douglas Blake

*All actual heroes are essentially men,
And all men are possible heroes.*

Ralph is a small, quiet boy, who is seldom heard from except in class recitations. However, Ralph was one of the few boys who always managed to get his homework done before he went into class.

Lauretta Pauline Beaulieu

The simplest record of thyself has worth.

Here is a girl who succeeded in combining two desired qualities for she is both studious and likewise full of fun. We could always tell when Lauretta was enjoying herself, because of that tell-tale smile. History Club 4.

Mildred Mary Belluardo

Let us be content in work to do the thing we can.

Millie has a cheerful disposition and a merry smile which have made her many friends. She is another member of the part-time group and was kept busy every other week working for Miss Dunn. Millie also worked afternoons for Spots & Company.

Anna Margaret Blois

Of quiet and studious aspect is she.

Anna's quiet way suggests the orderly simplicity that she displays in her school work and activities. An accomplished pianist, she is quite interested in cultural studies, and has followed her Latin through the fourth year. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Angelina Teresa Bodanza

For she's a jolly good sport.

Angelina was one of our smallest seniors but possessed a big voice, of which she made good use, for she was one of many who found pleasure in the Glee Club. Throughout her senior year, she might be seen industriously spending the few minutes before school in looking over her studies for that day.

Frank A. Blanchard, Jr.

All must be earnest in a world like ours.

This neat appearing young man recently came to us from Lunenburg. He is quiet but has a pleasing personality which especially appeals to the fairer sex for he can ably lead a girl in the light fantastic on any floor.

Rosario Samuel Bodanza

Hence loathed Melancholy.

Ciro, although diminutive in size, has the husky voice of a big six-footer. He would rather argue than not on any subject from the fourth dimension to the difference between carrots and parsnips. He is often seen riding to and from school on a bicycle. In the summer he is a member of the far-famed baseball team, the DiConza Bees.

Lionel Joseph Boudreau

Silence best speaks the mind.

Lionel is among the more silent members of the class though he is ambitious and a hard worker. He takes a great interest in basketball. During his spare time Lionel repairs bicycles so you see he is a real mechanic in the making.

Stuart James Bowen

His friendly smile will take him far.

Stuart, although active in school, builds his pleasure around his hobby. Because he is intensely interested in airplanes, he reads all the material available on this subject. He also has made enough fine airplane models to fill a first-class hangar. Later when Stuart attempts to enlarge one of his models, we may all see him off on his first flight around the world.

Barbara Boisoneau

*Alike regardless of their smile or frown
And quite determined not to be laughed down.*

Barbara was not in many school activities because she had other interests, such as being a nurse-maid. She might often be seen pushing a baby carriage along the street with one hand and holding on to another baby with the other. She should make an excellent governess.

Mary Bonina

A right jolly good smile has she.

With her cheery smile and happy-go-lucky disposition, Mary can claim enough friends to last a lifetime. There is a mischievous and fun-loving spirit hidden under that apparently demure exterior of hers. Mary is very fond of animals, especially cats. She likes all outdoor sports, but she does not take part in any herself. Dramatic Club 3.

Marjorie Ann Bothner

Sing away sorrow, cast away care.

"May I have the next dance, Marge?" "Sorry boys (note the plural) but I'm all filled up!" That phrase is always a heart-breaking blow, but the funny part of it is, that Marge is always filled up. A charming girl and smooth dancer. Hockey 2, French Club 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Florine Mary Breault

She nobly earns the crown she wears.

Florine is another quiet member of our class. She is a great sport enthusiast and plays hockey and basketball very well. Our dark-eyed Florine is planning to go to a commercial art school to take up commercial art. Dramatic Club 2, Volleyball 2, Basketball 2, 3, Hockey 2, 3, 4.

Arthur Carlton Brooks

Your inmost thoughts he is sure to surmise.

Red is not very active socially, but is well liked by all who come in contact with him. He is distinguished by the ruddy hue of his hair. A potential manager in one of the well known chain store corporations, he works both inside and outside of school.

Keistutic Paul Brown

Life is the game that must be played with courage

Keistutic is liked for his spirit of friendliness and cooperation. He works at the candy counter during lunch periods. He was a member of the relay team in his Junior year. Faithful in practice, he was very helpful to his team mates. Relay 3.

Forrest Erolld Bunker

It is our duty to live among books.

Forrest in class seems to be a quiet fellow, but on Friday and Saturday nights he has his fling. For then he sobs on his sax at dancing classes. That sagacious look of his must come from wandering about the library.

Harry Edward Butterfield, Jr.

The will to do, the soul to dare.

Harry, one of the members of our band, never seems to lack the company of fair damsels. Possibly the uniform. His name is often found on the honor roll, showing that he is a good student as well as a musician. Harry is well liked by his classmates for he has a noticeable sense of humor and readily takes part in any social activities about school. Dramatic Club, Councillor 2, 4, Band 3, 4, Orchestra, Secretary of Council 4.

Elizabeth Virginia Brooks

Nothing is troublesome that we do willingly.

Betty, with her many merits has worked hard and made the most of her days at school. Overcoming many handicaps, she has gained many friends here. She is very active in outside social work, too. History Club 4.

Pauline Mae Brownell

Her sweetness and her good nature are two of her greatest assets.

Pauline is a girl with a rather reserved personality. She is one of the many girls in our class who seem to spend some of their outside spare moments in knitting. She says she enjoys this pastime very much.

Elizabeth Ann Brunetti

Of ready wit and flashing eyes.

Lizzie is a very talkative young woman, who is continually wagging her tongue, yet it seldom seems to get her into trouble. She is very active in sports, and a useful member of the basketball team, where she not only plays well, but keeps all her team mates in the best of spirits. Basketball, Volleyball 2, 3, 4.

Mary Helen Burke

I am just a little girl with a big heart.

Mary is that amiable little daughter of the Emerald Isle who is kept busy running errands in room 202 before school. She has a very likeable personality, which is enjoyed by all who come in contact with her. Mary is very fond of hockey and is also an ardent football fan. Hockey 2, 3, 4.

Reginald Lawrence Cackett

You are sure to hear much of his deeds.

Here is a happy-go-lucky, Waites Corner lad, who does very little homework and takes things as they come. A player of the banjo, Reggie is very musically inclined. He is also active in church work.

Edward Charles Card

I find silence a valuable key to success.

Eddie is very studious but that does not prevent him from being interested in sports such as swimming, fishing, football and baseball. Although very quiet, he is well liked by all who know him. He enjoys music and plays the violin exceedingly well. Orchestra 3, 4.

Albert Richard Carlson

A comrade blithe and full of glee.

Albert comes from Mechanic Street. He is excellent both as a swimmer and as a gymnast. One needs only to look at him to realize this.

Roland Arthur Caron

All who have done good work with their whole heart have obtained success.

Roland is a very quiet and bashful person in school, but outside appears to be quite the opposite. He is an all around good sportsman; football and basketball being his favorites. It is said that during his spare time he likes very much to raise Cain. We hope that his present job as a store clerk will lead to something worthwhile in the future. Relay Team 3.

Margaret McAllister Burton

Fair and capable in many arts.

Margaret was cheerful from the instant she arrived at school in the morning until she left at two o'clock. Her disposition and interest in children caused her to be in demand for caring for children after school. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Dorella Mary Caron

A sweet attractive kind of grace.

Dorella has a very pleasing personality which has made her many friends. She makes up for her diminutive size by dressing neatly and in the latest fashions at all times. Most of her interests are outside of school so she does not take part in many of our school activities. Hockey 2.

Phyllis Marie Carpenter

*Mind cannot follow it, nor words express
Her infinite sweetness.*

Phil is the pretty, slim girl you see hurrying to and from Crocker Field, as she is Coach Amiot's efficient secretary. She has kept Dickie Gale very interested. In fact so much so, that he has given up his "Variety is the Spice of Life" motto. Junior Prom Committee 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Write-up Committee Boulder 4.

Domenica Josephine Cascio

*Modesty that low sweet root,
From which all heavenly virtues shoot.*

Domenica is a girl who has always found something to do. She has as an asset a vivid imagination and can make up excellent stories for children. She hopes to become a bookkeeper, and she certainly would make a good one. Basketball, Volleyball 3, 4.

Michael Angelo Censale

*A comrade blithe and full of glee
Who dares to laugh out loud and free.*

Michael certainly must be a descendent of Cicero, for he became an outstanding debator in his sophomore year. He is a salesman, too, for his customary greeting to all he meets is "Have you joined the Book of the Month Club yet?" He is widely known as Cupid's assistant. Color Committee 3, Class Dues Committee 3, Debating Club 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 3, 4, Business Manager Boulder 4.

Sherman Lowell Coates

His sunny temper gilds the edge of life's black cloud.

Although he adopts a quiet, almost bashful demeanor in class, when this big, frolicky, light haired Hercules and St. Lawrence get together, the world certainly knows about it, (a quiet moment means only that they are up to some mischief). One wonders if he ever has any very deep thoughts. Football 2, 3, Dramatic Club 4.

Bernard Nelson Cote

*Good nature is a special charm
That wins a host of friends.*

Our little rosy-cheeked Bernard comes from that small district of Fitchburg called Cleghorn. As a student, he is quiet and average. He is interested in bowling and may often be seen setting up pins in a local alley. Skating likewise occupies much of his time.

John Wellington Cox

'Tis want of courage not to be content.

Although John is a good student in school, he finds time outside to make, and very capably, too, many things of wood. John also reads many books. A jolly good fellow. Dramatic Club 2, 3.

Nina Theresa Celona

Nina is one of those quiet girls of whom we see little outside of classes. Although she has not played on our school teams, Nina enjoys basketball and volleyball. A hike is likewise always welcome.

Edna Mae Charrier

For all that faire is, is by Nature good.

Edna is one of the members of the class who try to appear quiet and bashful but aren't. She enjoys drawing and dancing. She is president of the Arts and Crafts Club. She has some of us wondering where she found out so much about football. How about letting us in on the secret? Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Readers' Guild 3, 4, Art Club 4, Class Play, Red and Gray, Marshal 4.

Rose Mary Cicala

Rose is a quiet girl of whom we don't hear much. However, we know she is very interested in basketball and has played on the school teams. She is also a very active Scout member. May you keep doing your good deed daily, Rose. Hockey, Basketball, Volleyball 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 2, 4.

Loretta Jane Cieslak

Loretta is a part-time student who has proved herself very efficient. She is a friendly girl and has brought many enjoyable moments to those in her classes and her friends. Hockey, Volleyball 3, Basketball 3, 4.

Robert Otis CrockerLively and ardent, frank and calm.*

Bob is a very likeable chap and is a favorite with all his classmates. He likes dancing and is a fine skater. Who would make a better looking usher in the nifty uniform of one of our local movie palaces than Bob? One of his closest friends after 2 p. m. is Miss Haskins. Junior Prom Committee 3, Basketball, Junior-Senior Relay 3, 4, Baseball, Track, Dramatic Club 4.

Ernest Cross, Jr.Diligence is the Mother of Good Fortune.*

Ernest possesses a happy disposition and is always ready with a smile, both in school and out. He appears to be industrious and to like to work. He is an ardent lover of sports, and although he does not play himself, he is a great fan.

Joseph William CrossleyHis music has its lingering charms
From both voice and guitar.*

Sometimes this lad with a slow drawl, who comes from the South, is known as Lucky Billy. His favorite pastime is playing stringed instruments, at which, we hear, he is quite adept. We are also informed that he can yodel like a cowboy.

James CunninghamThe mildest manners and the greatest heart.*

Jim, with ancestors from the Highland Moors, has a way of making friends which is his very own. He could slap your face and you'd have to laugh at him no matter how annoyed you were. A good scholar and all around fellow. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Eleanor Joyce ClevelandNot much talk, a great sweet silence.*

Eleanor is a rather quiet schoolmate, but her own circle of friends and acquaintances always enjoys her presence. She was one of our part-time students this year, and worked for Miss Mattson. Eleanor is very fond of sports and finds time to participate in some of them. Volleyball, Basketball 3.

Rita Claire ColletteQuiet she may be, but friends she has innumerable.*

Rita is an appealing little piece of bubbling mirth who has won the hearts of all who know her. One twinkle from those lovely eyes would melt a heart of stone. Rita is a part-time student and every other week helps Miss Mattson. History Club 4.

Helen Winifred ConnorGreat feelings has she of her own,
Which lesser souls may never know.*

Helen is a very quiet and studious person with a pleasing disposition. She has been a serious student all along, making great headway in the Commercial Course. Helen can always be found at school functions. She enjoys athletics also. Dramatic Club 4.

Dorothy Irene ConroyHer words were simple and her heart sincere.*

Dot is a valuable member of the Red and Gray board. Her favorite pastime is walking. A football enthusiast, she can be heard cheering lustily for a certain football player on Squad B. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Red and Gray 3, 4, Marshal 4, History Club 4.

Mitchell Jim Diamond

The rule of my life is to make business a pleasure, and pleasure a business.

Mike is more or less prejudiced toward athletics, especially basketball. At the Y one can constantly see him improving his eye for the basket. Although he is quiet in school, his sense of humor has made him justly popular.

Walter Samuel Dicker

*In every rank or great or small
'Tis industry supports all.*

Walty, one of our most agreeable boys, is willing to try anything once. He has ability in all sports but shines in track, especially in the high jump and running. His love for the outdoors is shown by his hope of becoming a forest ranger. Junior-Senior Relay 3.

Alphonse Nicholas DiConza

Friends and acquaintances are the surest passports to the future.

Fonsy is a very serious faced lad who is anything but. During his spare time in the summer he managed his own baseball team. If you have never seen DiConza's Bees play you have missed one of the treats of the sporting world.

Donald William Dobson

*He does little kindnesses,
Which most leave undone, or despised.*

Dobby, West Fitchburg's gift to humanity, possesses a quiet and dry sense of humor that is not surpassed by anyone in the school. Always with a ready wit, he can be heard tossing wisecracks back and forth in the corridor. Last summer, as head of the dishwashing department at Camp Lowe, he won a china medal as the best dishwasher in New England.

Jennie Frances Cordio

An air of happiness about her.

Jennie makes little commotion in school. Although she appears to be very quiet, friends say that she is a very different person outside of school. Jennie's favorite subjects are typewriting and sewing. Her ambition is to become a secretary in an office. Dramatic Club 3.

Elizabeth Cecelia Corley

A jovial classmate, loyal and true.

Elizabeth is noted for her very good nature. Her favorite occupation is eating. The consumption of five Hoodsies per lunch period is not at all unusual. Being very musical, we are led to believe that someday Elizabeth will become a great composer. History, Debating, Dramatic Clubs 4.

Marguerite Irene Coughlin

In Quietness and Confidence shall be Your Strength.

If you thumbed the pages of the book of scholastic achievement, you would surely find Marguerite. An earnest worker, she has always managed to do her assignments. Well liked by her many friends, Rita should never starve for the want of comradeship. Basketball 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, French Club, Councillor 3, Junior-Senior Reception 3, Hockey 4, Basketball, History, Debating, Latin Clubs, Marshal 4, Write-up Committee Boulder 4.

Marjorie Heald Crockford

Marjorie is one of our "easy-go-lucky" members and is well liked by both sexes. She can play the piano well and also enjoys sports. Marjorie is taking the General Course. Readers' Guild 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4.

Joseph Adolphe DoironHe that respects himself is safe from others.*

Joe is a quiet boy in school, and outside even more so. We understand he likes to skate pretty well, and has an aptitude for ice-hockey, which he probably inherits from his kinfolk in Canada. He speaks French fluently, in fact, better than he speaks English, and, may we point out, that is quite an accomplishment for an American.

Thomas Hooper Eckfeldt, 3rdBe there a will and wisdom finds a way.*

Tommy is always willing to lend a helping hand, even to a Democrat. Through his cooperation and untiring efforts the Red and Gray has been able to increase its number of pages. The honor roll shows that he also works hard for himself. Band 2, 3, Dramatic Club, Orchestra, Red and Gray 2, 3, 4, Treasurer Dramatic Club, Business Manager Red and Gray, Treasurer Red and Gray 4.

Victor Oliver EllstromHere is a waterfall of action and thought.*

Give Vicky a car and he is at home. A very popular and suave person, he is sure to keep the fun moving, and, incidentally, he can do the same with his school work. He participated both in indoor and outdoor activities, lending his ability to tennis and his versatility to the Dramatic Club. Tennis, Dance Committee 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Michael EmmaHe does his best in every circumstance.*

This human dynamo before long will be on the way to achieve a career. Active and athletic he has been the center of much here in school. He has not been particularly active at school social functions.

Elsie Beatrice DandoShe is wont to be as still as a mouse.*

Elsie is one of our special honor pupils. She is also one of our most well-mannered girls. After school she spends much of her time in church work. She is also very musical, and is especially interested in the piano.

Helen Elizabeth DaultonOne to drive the clouds away
And call the sunshine in.*

Billy, as all her friends call her, is one of the best looking girls in our class. To look at her you might think she was a quiet studious girl, but the rest of us know that she can be the life of the party. Hockey 2, 4, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Junior-Senior Reception 3, Basketball 4.

Adeline Josephine DeLibertisIntermingled mirth and earnestness.*

Adeline is one of our quieter girls but she is always ready for a good time. She can laugh at a joke, be it on herself or on someone else. She never worries about tomorrow; she lives only for today. Her sunny disposition is pleasing to everyone. A loyal fan for F. H. S. and a good friend. Hockey 2, 4, Volleyball, Basketball 2, 3, 4.

Emily Rose DiGeronimoThe carefree smile that won't come off.*

Here is one member who appears very quiet to us, but after knowing her you have a different opinion. Emily enjoys dancing very much and athletics also. If you should ever lose sight of Emily, look for Dolly and your troubles are all over. Dramatic Club 2.

Robert Joseph Fallon

*Cheerful at morn, he wakes from short repose
Breathes the keen air and carols as he goes.*

Bob is a tall, blond, young giant, perhaps the tallest in our class. Although his head cuts the atmosphere as he walks, it contains a lot of other things besides air, so that he is easily able to put many of his lowlier brothers to shame.

James Francis Finn

The harder the task, the greater the achievement.

Jimmy, one of our modest and quiet boys, is planning to be a salesman for a lacquer factory. Because of his very good manners and his neat appearance, we know he'll have success. In school Jimmy participated in hockey, baseball, football, and basketball.

Richard Francis Finn

His smile was not more sunny than his wit.

Dick is one of the prides of the senior class. Tall, dark, and handsome, with a winning smile which has carried him along in high school, and no doubt will bring him much success in the future. It's hard to tell when Dick is serious, so gals don't believe everything he tells you. Dramatic Club, Debating Club 2, Football 3, Councillor 3, Write-up Committee Boulder 4.

Arthur Aaron Friberg

Deeds, not words, make the man.

Arthur is a favorite among the boys in school. Even the opposite sex looks upon him as a hero because of his excellence in all sports, especially football. Everyone finds Arthur a very helpful and good-natured lad. Football 2, 3, 4, Ring Committee 3.

Adrienne Lucy Dupuis

To be busy at something is a modest maid's holiday.

Adrienne is the tall, blonde miss whose principal interest seems to be Girl Scout work. Her endeavors in this field have helped her to attain the coveted Golden Eaglet pin, and she also was fortunate to be able to attend the Scout Jamboree in Plymouth. Adrienne excels in athletics, particularly basketball, while still managing to keep up in her studies. Basketball, Hockey, Volleyball 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Class Dues Committee 3, Photography Club, History Club, French Club, Debating Club 4, Senior Class Play 4.

Lillian Marie Duquette

All things are won by diligence.

Lillian is a pleasant and well liked member of our class. She is full of fun and is always looking for a good time and a good laugh. Lillian is a part-time student and Mr. Dufour is fortunate in having such a capable little helper every other week.

Doris Genevieve Durkee

True worth is in being, not seeming.

Doris is noted for having genuine curls. This makes her the envy of both the boys and girls. She surprises herself with the good marks she is able to obtain. She is one of the most polite girls in the class. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Mildred Constance Emerson

She is very gentle of nature.

Mildred has distinguished herself in our class as a capable worker, and supporter of all things beneficial to the betterment of the school. She is a roller skating enthusiast and also finds much pleasure in the Girl Scouts. History Club 4.

Richard Barrie Gale

*Full of pep, easy to please,
As carefree and gay as a March breeze.*

Dickie, because of his versatility, ranks high in popularity. Not only has he good looks, a pleasing personality, and jolly nature, but he is also an accomplished dancer, a superb clarinet player and an excellent guitar strummer. It is no wonder Dick is so welcome at parties. Ring Committee 3, Band, Orchestra 2, 3, 4.

Francis Gaudet

Faithful and likeable is he.

True enough Francis is a quiet boy, but whenever anything interesting is going on he can always be found in the center of it. He studies, but not enough to deprive him of outside activities, in which he thoroughly enjoys himself. Track 3.

Sam Albert Giadone

*I live not in myself,
But I become a portion of that around me.*

Sam does not attract much attention in his travels about the high school corridors, nor is he famed for his scholastic ability. He is fond of all sorts of sports, weather and homework permitting.

Rene Goguen

Character is a perfectly educated wall.

Rene is always ready to answer at great length all questions regarding hunting, for he is a great lover of the out-of-doors and spends much time enjoying nature and its creations. We presume it is hunting which takes the monotony out of homework for Rene.

Johann Carmella Fava

Fair she is, and kind as she is fair.

Jennie is one of those girls who believe in getting good marks without too much homework. She has a fine sense of humor, and a pleasing smile. One of Jennie's favorite subjects must be history because she seems to know all the answers. Volleyball, Hockey 2.

Althea Reed Fellows

She possessed the peculiar talent of producing effect in whatever she said or did.

Althea is well known in every phase of school life, the athletic, the social, and the scholastic. She is full of a keen sense of humor. She knows all the latest dance crazes and every noon can be found tripping the light fantastic with one of our cheer leaders. Hockey 2, Volleyball 3, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Ring Committee 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, French Club 3, 4, Write-up Committee Boulder 4, Senior Class Play 4.

Janet Ferguson

*Like a bit of sunshine on a cloudy day,
She will quickly shoo all your blues away.*

Janet has a fair complexion, pretty brown hair, and a sunny disposition to go with them. She is constantly smiling, seems to be happy in whatever she does, and has a reputation for being modest. She likes most sports, and is a great fan.

Helen Tapply Flaherty

There is no wisdom like frankness.

Who can resist slipping this bewitching young thing the homework she did not have time to do? With, or without it, she does very well in school, her favorite subjects being Math. and Mr. Dooling. Some of her poems suggest that there may be a serious side to her nature. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Albert Oscar Goudreau

*Real loyalty is hard to find,
But Albert has the key.*

Al has a long way to come to school every day so perhaps that is the reason that he comes on his bicycle. The sport that he likes the most and excels in is ice skating. He is one of the quietest but most sincere boys in our class.

Thomas Hansen

Where words are scarce they are seldom spent in vain.

Tommy was one of the best runners on the relay team in '37 and was also on the football squad. He takes athletics quite seriously, and is usually found after school hours on a back lot playing scrub basketball, baseball, or football. He is somewhat of a wit, and likes to cut-up outside school while in school this characteristic of his is not so pronounced. Relay Team 3.

Reino Harsila

*It is not that you won or lost
But how you played the game.*

Since Muna has been on the football team he has had to dodge persistent ladies. Unfortunately for the school he didn't find out that he was a football player until his senior year. School doesn't present any great fascination for him, but he does succeed in getting good marks. Basketball, Football, Baseball 4.

Melvin Albert Hawes

The force of his own merit makes his own way.

Melvin is one of the few boys that can combine sports and studies successfully. He has two passions, football and a diminutive young lady with reddish gold locks. He is a studious boy and gets good marks, yet he always shines when he is called upon to do his part on the athletic field. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Football 3, 4, Marshal 4.

Bernice Irene Fletcher

She's full of life and full of fun.

It must be nice to know that you are everybody's friend and everybody is your friend. This Bernie knows. Her laughter can be heard before she appears. No hockey game would be complete without Bernie there to play. Dramatic Club 3, Volleyball 3, 4, History Club 4, Hockey, Basketball 2, 3, 4.

Marjorie Fletcher

Silence and discretion are especially becoming in a girl.

Marjorie's aspiration is to become a nurse. How fortunate will be those who will come under the fostering care of her professional skill. Although she is a great friend of Winona's, she has permitted many to enjoy a share of her companionship. Readers' Guild 3, Secretary Science Club 4.

Dorothy Marguerite Forest

*Little it matters what the size,
Her true good value we realize.*

Dorothy has been one of our up-and-coming classmates throughout her three years in high school. She was active in many school activities, but took special interest in the Dramatic and French Clubs. She showed excellent class spirit, through her willingness to cooperate with everyone. Basketball, Volleyball, Hockey, Dramatic, French Club 2, 3, 4, Latin Club 4.

Lorraine Marguerite Forest

That which benefits us is cheerfulness.

Lorraine is one of our bike enthusiasts for you will never see Lorraine outside of school without her bike. By the way how's the guitar coming along? If she studies as much as she plays on that instrument, we predict great things for her in the future.

James Everett Hawkins

Of their own merits modest men are silent.

A smile for everyone seems to be Jimmie's motto. His enthusiastic manner and cheerful disposition have won him a host of friends. Jimmie is a skilled model builder and woodworker. He enjoys camping in the open in all conditions of weather. Tennis Tournament 4, Dramatic Club 4, Senior Class Play 4.

Leeman Eino Hendrickson

Hunting was his sport.

This strong willed out-of-door individual has little to say in school. He'd rather do his work, get out of school and spend the rest of the day in the woods. An expert woodsman and marksman, he should hit his mark.

Norman Henry Hobbs

*Who to himself is law no law doth need,
Offends no law and is a king indeed.*

When we first were acquainted with Hobbsie, he was one of those blond curly-haired darlings that never did anything out of place. Ah-er, we might say now that his hair has lost a little of its curl and maybe that's 'nuff said. Norman is the seniors' pride in the line of personality and sportsmanship. Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Robert Arthur Hopkins

*Toiling, rejoicing, helpful
Onward through life he goes.*

Hoppy keeps a regular rogues' gallery, in which there must be a picture of almost every girl in school. He has the reputation of being a heart-breaker, but also is known to have a rather mischievous turn of mind. Dramatic Club 2.

Virginia Mae Forrester

Her good humor is a fountain never dry.

Ginny is one of those pupils that seem to be always on the run. Her pleasant disposition made her a useful member of the numerous school clubs to which she belonged. As she lives in West Fitchburg, it is no wonder she is enthusiastic about swimming and skating. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, History Club 4.

Helen Ann Foss

Ever alert to the want of a friend.

You'll see her in her spare time at Whalom roller skating. Her favorite sport is tennis and she is also a football enthusiast. Helen's ambition is to become a secretary or accountant at which we know she will be very efficient.

Eva Estella Gage

Truth is within ourselves.

Eva is the blue-eyed lass from Westminster whose sunny smile charms us all. She likes to skate and swim in which sports she is quite proficient. Her quiet studious manner does not fool us for we know how lively she can be. Dramatic Club 3.

Claire Olive Gagnon

*A gentle quiet little elf,
Who thinks of others before herself.*

Claire seems to be a very quiet person, but out of school she appears quite lively. She enjoys reading library books and making little sketchings which will perhaps lead to something in years to come. Claire is seen much of the time with Fred. French Club 2, Art Club 4.

George Ernest Hughes

*A smile and a helping hand
Lightens a heavy burden.*

George is the bosom companion of Clayton Lord. Like Claytie, he has a mania for dancing. He also is very active in the gymnasium. Football 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4.

Edward Samuel Imprescia

I can master awkward things.

Eddie, in spite of his lack of height, was one of the faithful members of the football squad. He rarely missed practice, and often proved himself a good field general by the way he led the second team in scrimmage. Football 2, 3, 4, Relay 3, Basketball, Track 4.

Robert Carroll Johnson

Learning makes a man a fit companion for himself.

Nick comes from the great industrial center of Fitchburg, the one and only Waites Corner. His interests are baseball in the summer when he pitches for the Waites Corner Heroes, and in winter his brand of hockey is excelled by few in the school. When he isn't busy with sports he can be heard with his radio giving dots and dashes, and lots of flashes. Baseball 4.

Robert Ellstrom Johnson

*His interests range o'er everything
And many views he holds.*

Bob not only can laugh without the slightest provocation but can make you laugh and enjoy yourself. He is tall and blond. His seeming indifference is his only weapon, especially in an argument. His mechanical, athletic, and dramatic abilities should combine to give him a successful career. Hand Book Committee 3, Councillor 3.

Margaret Maude Gates

So of cheerfulness, or a good temper, the more it is spent, the more of it remains.

Peg is the energetic young lady who led us in our cheers at football games. Wherever Peg may be she always has a cheerful smile and pleasant word for everyone. She also served very capably as our class secretary in our junior year. All through our school years she has been a leader and helped make our class a success. Volleyball 2, 3, Basketball 3, Dramatic Club, Cheer Leader 2, 3, 4, Debating Club, Chairman Joke Committee Boulder, Marshal, Senior Class Play, History Club 4, Hockey 4.

Theresa Alida Gelinas

Her interest extends in many directions.

An acquaintance with Grace is all that is necessary to appreciate her spirit of cooperation and friendliness. You would never suspect it, but her twinkling eyes betray her love of wholesome fun.

Theresa Marie Gendron

Pleasure has been the business of my life.

Theresa had many interests outside of school. although she was a loyal member of our class. Although she attended Beano games and seemed to enjoy roller skating, her real interest was in music. She played the violin and hoped to further this study at the Boston Conservatory next fall.

Sophie Ghenes

A girl sincere and true.

Sophie has been a favorite with us since the beginning of our high school career. In spite of the long walk she has from home you can always find her ready for some activity. A great deal of her time is taken up with the Girl Scouts and playing hockey. Hockey 4, Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Francis Thomas Kalagher

Everywhere the question in life is not what we gain but what we do.

Franny is well known for his dealings in newspapers. He endeavors to satisfy all with his quiet impressive manner. Perhaps it was the exercise which he receives at his work that enabled him to make such a splendid exhibition at the 1937 Junior-Senior Relay Race. Relay 3.

Edward Vettie Kalinen

A man full of ambition.

To find out what a perfect coordination of muscles means, one should watch Eddy on the gym floor. Did you ever see him do somersaults or hang by his toes? He can also use his hands to great advantages in making excellent cartoons, drawings, and paintings. Football 2, 3.

Lester James Kelty

*Life is a jest and all things show it,
I thought so once, now I know it.*

Lester is the red-headed lad from Westminster who whizzes to school in a Graham on the mornings he oversleeps. He thinks very little of studying, but to his advantage he has that air which seems to get away with everything. He hopes in the near future to take up the study of Diesel engines. Football 2, 4.

Toivo Francis Kerttula

From him all sorrow flies afar.

Toivo is a quiet and unassuming youth, who is not really known to any save his own chums. He is very proficient in handicrafts. Though quiet, Toivo is well liked and the better he is known the better liked.

Rachel Mary Giamarino

In faith, lady, you have a merry heart.

Rachel has made herself well known during her four years at high school for her wit and good nature, for she is bubbling over with fun. A great lover of books, she can always be found at the library. The quality which characterizes Rachel best is "pep." Volleyball, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4.

Lucille Corinne Goguen

Nothing is achieved before it be thoroughly attempted.

Lucille helps to keep the wheels of the Continuation School Office running smoothly. She is very studious and can generally be seen carrying as many books as she can hold. Outside of school, she is an active member of the Girl Scouts. Basketball 2, Hockey 2, 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, History Club 4.

Winona Greene

Love, sweetness, goodness, in her person shined.

Give Winona a needle, thread, a bit of cloth and she can turn out anything you wish. Sewing is her one particular skill. She is quiet and demure; still we find her an active member of several school clubs and a regular attendant of the Junior Woman's Club. Science Club, Readers' Guild 4.

Dorothy Louise Griggs

My smiling eyes betray a heart of gold.

Here is a girl who hasn't an enemy in the world. She is cheerful and easy to get along with. Dotty is especially fond of sports, starring as a goalie in hockey. Perhaps her athletic ability comes from that slight strain of Indian of which she is very proud. Hockey, Basketball, Dramatic Club 2, 3, Basketball, History, Debating, Latin Clubs 4.

Peter Kyricopoulos

Good humor is the main spring of his energy.

Pete is one of those tall stalwart boys from West Fitchburg. When seen patrolling Main Street or in school he is always well supported by a large following of friends. Football 2, 3.

Eugene Edward Laakso

Talented and studious is he.

To this calm, quiet, young Einstein, anything involving the science of Mathematics is quite simple—and interesting. Perhaps that is why he enjoys physics. School, however, does not take up all his time for he spends a great deal of it at his favorite sport—hunting.

Joseph Laberge

*Active, buoyant, beaming,
Of energy—great stores.*

Joseph is one of those boys who never seem to be worried very much about anything that usually troubles others, such as homework, for instance. It is a pleasure to have him around because of his good humor and wit. Joseph finds life enjoyable, and helps in his own way to make it more pleasant. Relay 3, Basketball, Track 4.

Sointu Olavi Lahti

I chatter, chatter as I go.

Baron Munchausen, as he is lovingly called by his friends, can tell quite a few stories, but his favorites are fishy ones. For according to his own repute, he is an experienced fisherman. Wherever Sointu can find a listener, he needs no prompting; so if you wish to have a pleasant half hour, ask him about that thirty inch pickerel he caught with a bare hook in Nashua. Dramatic Club 2.

Lena Guglielmi

I have sweet refuge in music.

Lena is one of our quietest pupils from 8.15 till 2, but after that she makes her presence felt. She is an excellent pianist. She loves to swim, skate, and dance as well, but the movies are her secret passion. Lena will not regret leaving her classmates and books behind her at graduation.

Pauline Mae Healy

Her smile is sweetened by her gravity.

Pauline is known as one of our quiet members. Her greatest ambition when she graduates is to become a nurse. How fortunate will those be who will come under her fostering care. She can now be found working at Woolworth's every Saturday. Dramatic Club, History Club 4.

Beulah Davis Howard

'Tis good will makes intelligence.

Beulah is one of our exceptionally modest and quiet schoolmates, but her presence is always enjoyed by her own circle of friends and acquaintances. She is very industrious, and spends most of her time reading books. Outside of school, up there in Westminster, Beulah is an active member in the Grange which she enjoys very much. Dramatic Club 2, History Club, Readers' Guild 4.

Lydia Miriam Huttula

In her tongue is the law of kindness.

Lydia is a small, quiet girl who ranks high in scholastic standing. Driving a car is one of her pastimes which she enjoys greatly, although she has to perch on a pile of pillows. A blond football player occupies much of her leisure time. Councillor 2, Motto Committee 3, Basketball 3, 4, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Latin, History, and Debating Clubs, Dance Committee 4.

Henry Charles LavoieThe most manifest sign of wisdom is cheerfulness.*

Henry is well known for his debating ability. The entire school is not willing to accept the defeat of his team. The loss last year of the Debating Club cup to the girls' team was a sour blow to Henry. Be prepared to tune in on your radio, at some later date to a program announced by the dulcet voice of Henry Lavoie. Dramatic Club, Debating Club 2, 3, 4, Junior Prom Committee 3.

Julius Bernard LazarowitzGood humor is the health of the soul.*

Red is the capable co-manager of the football team. His favorite sports are fishing and hunting. He has a fine collection of fish lines and a 30-30 rifle for hunting purposes. Red helps his brother who is a painter. We wonder if his paint brush slipped once and made his hair so red. Co-manager Football Team 4.

Ernest Dolor LeBlancA worker who seems so free
But a true friend to you and me.*

Ernest is quiet but friendly and always willing to lend a helping hand. He served as a very efficient waiter in the cafeteria during lunch periods. Ernest travels alone frequently, and it is not at all unusual for his trips end up in a movie theatre.

Louis Allen LegerSerene, resolute, still,
Also calm and self-possessed.*

Allen is a loyal supporter of his alma mater. Even though he works, every Saturday, at noon he takes his leave, and makes his appearance at Crocker Field to root for the home team. He was manager of the Relay Team in '37, and put in a great deal of time keeping records of the team's progress, but shared none of the glory except the satisfaction of a job well done. Debating Club 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, Manager Basketball 3, 4.

Helen Viola JaaskelainenHer eyes are songs without words.*

True to blond fashion, Helen, one of our particularly attractive girls, blushes very easily. She also excels in dancing as well as in blushing, hence her smiling face is looked for in some dance-hall practically every evening. Readers' Guild 3, 4, French Club, Class Dues Committee 4.

Ellen Alice JarkkoThough I do not speak often,
My mind holds many things.*

In spite of the difficulties the female sex finds in doing Trig and Physics, Ellen was one of the two lassies who faced the test. And in fact, Ellen managed to do better than some of the boys in the class. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, History Club, Basketball 4.

Martha Margaret JonesHer friends there are many,
Her foes are there any?*

Martha has long been a very popular young lady. Of late her circle of intimate friends has grown longer. Even in the lower grades her knack of making friends was noticed. She is a credit to the north side. Basketball 2, 4, Dramatic Club 3, 4.

Lillian Louise KaulbackLight comes in the gloom.*

Lillian is the proud possessor of a most alluring personality which has captured the heart of many a male. Her favorite sport is dancing, and maybe it is this that keeps her up so late at night. Her future is as yet undecided.

Connie William Lipniskas

Friends slowly won are long held.

Connie is one of those persons who seem to have a way with them. Although he always seems to be late for school and comes with very few books, he gets by. After school he spends much of his time jerking sodas in a West Fitchburg drug store.

Clayton Richard Lord

Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm.

Claytie enjoys the distinction of being one of the school's best dancers. Seldom is it that he cannot be seen on a dance floor. He has done very little in outside activities, but has a way of getting into mischief. Football 2, 3, Dramatic Club 4.

John Patrick McCue

Worry never clouds his cheerful thoughts.

Jack's big brown eyes and fun loving disposition have made him a live one. Anyone who has been in any of his classes can vouch for the fact that his well known sense of humor has pulled him out of many tight spots, even in Mr. Adler's gym class. Jack, as canoe Czar at Whalom last summer, really found out how popular he was and was surprised to see what a number of friends he had.

Philip Arthur McGuirk

*True merit is like a river,
The deeper it is the less noise it makes.*

What first attracts one to this smooth young man is his calmness and keen sense of humor. Like any normal person, Phil likes to enjoy himself with the crowd, but in not too loud a fashion. He is also an ardent mathematical scholar and takes both Trig and Physics. French Club, Marshal 4.

Margaret Mary Keating

Peg has long been one of the most active and best liked members of her class, especially among its male members. This last year she has worked in Candyland without any deleterious effect on her studies. Dramatic Club 2, 3, Junior Prom Committee 3, Basketball 4.

Eila Martha Lammi

*The beautiful maiden moved down in the dance
With the magic of motion and sunshine of glance.*

Eila is a very happy soul who always goes about with a kind word for everyone. She is a great sportswoman and is noted for her excellent dancing. This year Eila worked part-time for Coach Amiot at Crocker Field. Dramatic Club 2, 3, Junior Prom Committee 3, Write-up Committee Boulder 4.

Veronica Alyce Lashua

Few things are impossible to diligence.

Veronica is a typical fun loving lass. She finds great pleasure in both skating and dancing in which, we hear, she excels. Her serious side is shown by her love of reading. Her readiness for fun and her willingness to do her share of the work make Veronica a nice person to know.

Yvonne Catherine L'Ecuyer

*Today whatever may annoy,
A word from me is simple joy.*

Yvonne is very quiet and reserved. She works continuously and is always willing to be of assistance. There is a mischievous and fun loving spirit hidden under her apparently demure exterior. She desires to become an efficient stenographer.

Richard Francis McNamaraHe is always in such a perfect humor.*

Mac is a very sociable person with a taste for enjoyable gatherings. Because of this and his willingness to cooperate in doing his share of work in any worthy cause, he has won many friends and a great deal of popularity. Ring Committee 3, Football 2, 3, 4, History Club, Class Prophecy, Senior Class Play 4.

Weikko Ilmari MakiHe is witty, he is wise
He's a terror for his size.*

Smac is that fellow whom you see around school with a candid camera. In the cafeteria, assembly hall, class room, or otherwise, it is all the same to Smac. His good natured smile and pleasing personality have made him an asset to our class.

Charles MaravellStrong of heart and of mind.*

Charlie is one of our all-around well liked boys. An ardent debater, he is one of Miss Taylor's best speakers and a good prop man besides. Charlie's hobby is photography and if you desire information on any phase of this subject, he will be only too glad to enlighten you. Motto Committee, Prize Speaking, Councillor, Relay 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Red and Gray 3, 4, History, Write-up Committee Boulder, Senior Class Play 4.

Nofrio Joseph MarellaQuietly he speeds away, to get
There is his aim.*

Nofrio, or Nuno, as his friends would have it, wears his smiling countenance for business as well as for pleasure. Nofrio, although bashful in the presence of women, is a star on the athletic field. This was shown by his exhibition at the Junior-Senior Relay Race. Relay 3, 4, Football 4.

Edwidge Marie LegerWithout cheer and laughter there is no joy.*

Swidge is an ardent lover of sports and a very good hoopster. She participates enthusiastically in all class discussions. Her violin playing has enabled her to be a member of the High School orchestra for the three years of her school attendance. Hockey, Basketball, Volleyball, Dramatic Club, Orchestra 2, 3, 4.

Faith LeonardWhat a spendthrift she is of her tongue.*

Here is a chatter-box if ever there was one, but Faith doesn't use her jaws only for talking because she is forever chewing. She is meek in the class rooms but her cheerful voice resounds throughout the corridors. Reading takes up her leisure time. Dramatic Club 4.

Betty Jane LesureNo beauty's like the beauty of the mind.*

Betty was prominent scholastically and socially. Her pleasant personality made her outstanding in all school activities especially at the school dances. Her special interests were the Marshal System and the Red and Gray. To the latter she was a constant contributor. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, French Club 3, 4, Junior Prom Committee 3, Red and Gray 3, 4, Art Club, Senior Class Play, Words of Class Song, Marshal 4.

Annetta Clementes LongerieThe secret of success is constancy of purpose.*

Annetta has been an outstanding member of the Commercial Class as far as marks are concerned for the past three years, and her name has always appeared on the special honor roll. One of her special interests this year seemed to be arguing with Mr. Dillon in Room 403. Annetta worked every other week in the High School Office.

Phillip George Marriott

A right jolly good smile has he

Phil doesn't let the thought of his lessons keep him awake nights for he firmly believes in taking things easy. Phil is always ready for fun—especially jollyng the fairer sex of the class. He is a part-time student and every other week helps Mr. Howard.

Howard Bishop Marshall

Behold now before you a youth who is wise.

Here two years from the Green Mountains, Howie has risen from the depths of obscurity to the heights of popularity. Tall, dark and handsome, with no hayseed in his hair, he has many male friends; the weaker sex have looked at him askance, still doubting if he can be real. Active in church and social affairs he has gone along his cheerful way.

Nicholas Joseph Martines

Brevity is a great praise of eloquence.

Nick, who shared half-back honors with Reino on the gridiron, was blessed with a pair of football hips that surpass any in school. These hips made him a wonderful broken-field runner. Who can forget his 90-yard run against Brookline? Baseball 2, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Football 2, 3, 4, Track 4.

Paul Ferdinand Mayne

Who loveth all things, hath fear of none.

Guess where he comes from. Yes, West Fitchburg, Waites Corner to be exact. He was noted for his excursions to Whalom, where he spent many evenings roller skating.

Jean Hill MacFarlane

She was a phantom of delight.

Mac is one of those people who can mix business with pleasure. One never sees the honor roll but what Jean's name is near the top. On the other hand, though, Jean takes part in many school activities and is an all around high school girl. A little sprig of heather. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Readers' Guild 3, 4, Pasketball, Joke Committee Boulder 4.

Barbara Louise Maggs

A light happy heart lives long.

Sonja Henie has nothing on Barb. We might conclude that she loves to skate; for we may find her skating at Coggs Hall on any winter night. Her one ambition is to become a nurse; we don't doubt but what she would prove very efficient—but why not have a skating queen in our midst? Dramatic Club 2, Readers' Guild, Joke Committee Boulder 4.

Elizabeth Marie Maggs

*A pair of eyes entrancingly bright
Behind which lies a mischievous light.*

Dolly is both fine as a student and as a socialite. Although she does her studying faithfully in the afternoons, she also believes in a little life. The smile or grin that seems to be continually on her face can be credited to her fine sense of humor. Dramatic Club 2, 3, Class Color Committee 3, Marshal 4.

Edith Esther Maki

*Where quietness reigns
Ability is sure to be.*

Edith should be a fine secretary some day, because she has all the merits of a perfect secretary. She is one of our part-timers, so is seldom seen around school. In the winter she may be found skating as it is her favorite sport. Dramatic Club 2, 3.

Ralph Samuel MazzilliNothing succeeds like success.*

Sam is one of those boys who dream of airplanes, dirigibles, parachutes, for seriously speaking, flying is his ambition. If he manoeuvres a plane as well as he rides a bicycle, no one will be afraid to go up with him. Who knows, perhaps he will win the next war for us. Track, Basketball, History Club 4.

Leslie Earl MeehanThere's ability in knowing how to conceal one's ability.*

Leslie waited until this year to prove his real worth. Then, he blossomed out into one of our very best ends. He can always be seen surrounded by many of his numerous friends, no matter where he is. Track 3, Football 2, 3, 4.

Alfred Joseph MembrinoLaughter and fun are my close friends.*

Al hasn't the reputation of being a loud-speaker although he does on occasion, which occurs usually in a debate, express his opinions. He is well-known to his classmates for his speaking ability. Al's popularity is due largely to his genial spirit and pleasant disposition. Debating Club 2, 3, 4, Councillor 4.

George MikaelianHe is a quiet observer, and he looks Quite through the deeds of men.*

George is one of those fellows who are always doing something. Two of his favorite diversions are handicraft and tennis. He is a near expert at both and it's a sure bet that he'll be on the F. H. S. Tennis Team this year. Everybody likes Kaddy for his great good-nature and he does not suffer from lack of friendships. He is quiet, but he can appreciate a good joke as well as anyone else. Tennis Tournament 4, Basketball, Track, Chemistry Club 4.

Esther Miriam MakiHer bright smile haunts me still.*

This quiet tow-headed girl is a very good student. Although she doesn't talk much she has a sunny smile that wins her many friends. May you keep it always, Esther! Dramatic Club 3, 4, Readers' Guild, History Club 4.

Miriam Dagmar MakiThe gentle mind by gentle deed is known.*

Mim is calm and serene, but she can smile very sweetly. She is a dependable student and her name always appeared on the honor roll. Possessed of a pleasing personality, Mim is bound to make a name for herself in future years. Dramatic Club 2.

Charlotte Florence MatthewsFair to look upon, and nice to know.*

Charlotte's ebony hair certainly is the envy of many who gaze on this small miss with that infectious smile. During the past year she has very ably assisted Miss Dunn as she was a part-timer. Charlotte is also a patron of all the Y. M. C. A. socials. Class Banner Committee 3, Dramatic Club 4.

Aune Ellen MerilaSilence is more eloquent than words.*

Aune looks like a quiet girl but looks deceive even the best of us. Dancing appeals strongly to her. No wonder she can keep that figure that women so desire! Wherever you find Aune, Lydia Huttula is not far away. Basketball 2, Dramatic Club 3.

Morris Jay Mishkin

I would rather be right than be president.

Mish has proved himself one of the ablest room councillors in the school. In spite of all his other activities, he always finds time to take care of his home room. The school orchestra has Mish for one of its best violin players and is proud of this member. Dramatic Club 2, 3, Junior-Senior Reception 3, Orchestra 2, 3, 4, Councillor 3, 4, Track 4.

Aimo Wendell Moilanen

As big of heart as he is handsome of face.

Butch, as his friends call him, should be a stage hand, for he was a valuable asset to Miss Peabody in working back stage at our Dramatic Club plays. Although Aimo didn't participate in those plays we owe a lot to him. Dramatic Club 3, 4, Band 2.

Richard Albert Morrell

*Today whatever may annoy
The word for me is simply joy.*

Dick, alias The Shadow, doesn't believe in taking life too seriously, because, as he says, you won't get out of it alive anyway. He is a born practical joker and quite a wit. Tennis is his favorite sport which he plays very often during the summer. Councillor 3.

Einar Edwin Muhonen

My talent runs in many directions.

Tall, blond, and handsome describes Eddie to a T. Without Eddie, high school for many girls would have been very uninteresting. Eddie's popularity among the opposite sex is not his only distinction, for he has proved to be a very good student and an excellent representative from Westminster on the baseball team. Baseball, Junior Relay Team 3.

Charlotte Merriam

Oh, there is something in that voice.

Charlotte's quiet manner and subtle humor would be an asset to any group. She has further contributed to school activities as a violinist in the orchestra. An active Westminster Girl Scout, Charlotte is about to receive the coveted Golden Eaglet. Basketball 2, Dramatic Club 3, Orchestra 2, 3, 4.

Esther Merriam Moses

Mischief dances in her eyes.

Esther is well known in and about school for her genial, care-free nature. Esther's ambition is to become a nurse. Sorry, boys, but she is specializing in children. She is very fond of her chemistry book; it has such pretty pictures in it. Esther's smile will long be remembered by her classmates. Dramatic Club 4.

Priscilla Athala Munson

A good laugh spreads sunshine.

Tilly of the cheerful disposition enjoys life greatly. With her somewhat deep voice she has delighted her friends with her singing. She is especially well known throughout the school as an excellent driver. Ahem! French Club 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Basketball, History Club, Class Prophecy, Halloween Dance Committee 4.

Helen Nasis

The mildest manner and the greatest heart.

Helen is one of our better girl athletes. Whether it is hockey, basketball, or volleyball, she is sure to excel. She can sink baskets as well as many of our male wonders. She is also one of the easiest going girls in our class and she has never been known to lose her temper. Basketball, Hockey 2, 3, 4, Volleyball 3, Dramatic Club 3, 4.

John Nelson MustakangasI will find a way or make one.*

Jack, although he appears to be a quiet lad is quite the opposite in class. He has offered many helpful suggestions in the line of bettering the school year and we are thankful for them. He is a good student and a good sport. Dramatic Club 4.

James Harlan MylottA silent man, but one in whom the world rejoices.*

James, because of his industry outside, has rather put himself in the school background. We know he would make an excellent basketball player, but rain or shine, hot or cold, he must be out delivering his papers. So far as we know, here is a lad who gets along with everyone.

Edmund Ola NelsonHis thoughts look through his words.*

Edmund is an enterprising youth who believes that all work and no play would make Edmund a dull boy. He is always ready and willing to do anything to please anyone. He is a member of the band in which he plays the alto horn. Junior Relay Team, Band 3.

Ernest Andrew NoleInflexible in faith, invincible in aims.*

Ernie is one of Mr. Adler's most perfect examples of manhood. He has participated notably in many of our school sports and has always rated high scholastically. He has been one of the hardest and most sincere rooters for our class throughout our school years. Football 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4, Class Prophecy, Marshal, Write-up Committee Boulder 4.

Avis Irene NelsonLaugh and the world laughs with you.*

Avis is noted for her friendliness to others and her willingness to help her classmates. She has no exceptional talent, except that she does all things well. She is always ready for a good time and helps others to have one too.

Christine Ann NikitasGood humor only teaches charm to last.*

Christine is a faithful and active supporter of our class. She has played in the orchestra for several years. Perhaps that's why it is so good, for Christine plays the violin excellently. Good in her studies as well, she is well liked by all the pupils. She is also fond of athletics. Hockey, Basketball 2, Orchestra 2, 3, 4, History Club 4.

Marion Amy OttoAnything for a quiet life.*

Amy is a very energetic young person whom one may see playing tennis at almost any time. We suspect that she spends some of her time during the winter months, shoveling snow from the tennis court at Lowe Playground. It is impossible to separate Amy from Joan. Theirs is an outstanding example of a true friendship. Although she doesn't devour books, she always emerges from the severest test with a smile. Basketball 3, 4, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Helen Elaine PananosA girl who is kind and cheerful in any circumstance.*

This girl's hosts of friends will readily tell you that behind her smooth countenance and twinkling eyes, lie high intellectuality and originality. She has proved this both through her school work and outside activities.

Richard Malcolm North

Kind mercy is nobility's true badge.

Behind Dick's sober countenance there lurks a bit of Old Nick that sometimes resolves itself into action, and then——. He is a deep thinker, one of those master minds in chess, who have you beaten before you start. He achieves the same effect in his school work. Dramatic Club, Councillor 2, Relay 3, Marshal 4.

Robert George Nurnberger

He is the embodiment of manly good humor.

Bob is the athletic type. In winter he carves a mean figure on the ice; in summer he haunts the tennis courts by day and the roller skating rinks by night. His favorite class is German where he takes his daily siesta. Bob's quiet appearance doesn't fool us a bit—just ask us who know. Dramatic Club, Tennis Club 2.

Richard Stig Olson

*He was made for carefree thoughts
For happy wit and laughter.*

Put is certainly one of the happiest and best-liked boys in the class of 1938. His personality shines whether he is on the dance floor, leading cheers at Crocker Field, or performing on the stage. Although he doesn't love the sight of books, he gets by with room to spare. Cheer Leader 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Basketball, Senior Class Play 4.

Richard Nast Osborne

*A merry heart goes all day,
A sad one tires in a mile.*

Dickie Osborne, we all agree, has worked his way through his school years, with a most pleasing voice. He has a line that he uses efficiently both on the teachers and the girls. He also has showed us his excellent talent as a vocalist and a dramatist. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Senior Class Play, Band 4.

Josephine Rita-Ann Pandiscio

*Thou bring'st courtesy too, and a wit
Two things that never fail to hit.*

Dolly is one of our most attractive brunettes. Her snapping black eyes sparkle with friendliness. The name Dolly fits her very well and people know her by no other name. We are sure that she will prove a very efficient secretary, for such is her desire. Dramatic Club 4.

Ruth Winelle Parker

Play up, play up, and play the game.

Tiny, as the girls call her, is a leader in girl's sports. She has captained teams to a high school championship in basketball and hockey. She was always one of the first to answer Miss Gibbon's call for candidates. Hockey, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4, Volleyball 4.

Sylva Helena Pasanen

Courteous, gentle, and a little retired.

Sylva is the blonde who is always smiling at somebody. She always enjoys a good time but does her studies faithfully and is rewarded each time with good marks. One of her favorite pastimes is dancing.

Alexandria Passios

A learned girl always has riches in herself.

Much of Alex's leisure time is devoted to the Girl Scouts. Although rather quiet, Alex is a very friendly girl. Her brilliance is especially well displayed by her Latin translations. She takes an active part in sports and the Debating Club. Basketball 2, 3, Hockey, Debating Club 3, 4, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Round Table, Latin Club, Marshal, Write-up Committee Boulder 1.

Lucius Louis PandiscioWho often lightens melancholy with his merry jests.*

With his swaggering, Lulu will give your good nature a true test. He'll drive you mad by asking questions and then contradicting your answers. To top it he'll laugh at you in your distress. Dramatic Club 3, 4.

James PappasWisdom speaks little, but that little well.*

Pap, like most of his chums, is more interested in athletics than homework. His basketball playing is far above the average. Pap can usually be found at the Y either in the gym or in the lobby. His unfailing smile around school has helped him to gain many friends.

Dennis Milnes ParkerVariety is the Mother of Enjoyment.*

Dennie is a great cut-up and he always seems to be laughing at a newly made joke or prank. This makes him a rather steady attendant at sessions. Whether at a football game, a school play or a dance, Dennie is always one of the school's most loyal rooters. Junior Prom Committee, Junior-Senior Relay 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4.

Waino Ilmari ParviainenI am master of my fate.*

Our class would not be complete without this happy-go-lucky lad from Ashburnham. Waino is very rarely seen carrying books home but nothing ever worries him—not even exams. Yet he always manages to scrape through. Track 3, 4.

Eleanor Marion PearsonGraced by the power of her voice.*

Eleanor displays in school activities a pleasing and enthusiastic personality. Eleanor has a very charming soprano voice which she uses skilfully in her vocal solos. She is the secretary and an active worker in the Dramatic Club. Her extensive travels about the country and Canada make her conversation very interesting. Hockey, Basketball 2, 4, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Junior Prom Committee 3, Joke Committee Boulder 4.

Leona was a real sport enthusiast. She not only enjoyed watching sports, but participated in hockey and basketball games as well. Her favorite pastime, she says, is taking long walks. Her ambition is to attend a school of business next fall. Hockey 2.

Janet Mary PeppeA maiden who is richly blessed
With loads of friends and happiness.*

Janet is a quiet member of the class and is very seldom heard from. She has a business-like manner which should help her become a prominent figure in the business world. Hockey 2, Basketball 2, 3.

Katherine Rena PetersAs merry as the day is long.*

Katherine is truly one of our live wires. Her outstanding virtue is considering others before herself. In addition to this quality she possesses an abundance of wit and mischief which endears her to all the members of the class. Debating Club, Dramatic Club 3, Science Club, History Club 4.

John PassojaA lightsome eye, a soldier's mien.*

Although Johnny's mishap took him away from our midst for a while, he has been back with us for some time now and is more fun than ever. His sense of humor is hardly surpassed by anyone in school, and we are sure that it will take him far in this complex world of ours. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Tennis 4.

Robert Bradley PatchMuch wisdom often goes with fewest words.*

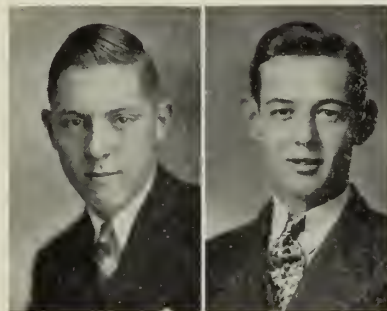

This amiable young fellow is deeply interested in his studies and this interest brings remarkable results on his report card. He has a peculiar habit of rolling his eyes which effectively accompanies his witty remarks. His sidelines include stamp collecting and Boy Scout activities. French Club, Color Committee 3.

Arvo David PeltonenI prefer silent prudence to loquacious folly.*

Arvo is a friendly young fellow, with beautiful golden hair, who doesn't believe in turning all his talents in one direction. He is a whole-hearted tooter on his horn when he graces the band with his presence and is a whole-hearted worker at his studies when he is so inclined. He ranks ace-high with his classmates.

Winfield Scott PennimanObliging and ever so kind
He's a friend we're glad to find.*

Wimpy came to us by way of Pepperell and Lunenburg. Here as elsewhere he has made himself well known. He is engaged in the iron and steel business at present but hopes to become a farmer in the near future.

Gertrude Germond PhelpsA quiet mind is richer than a crown.*

Germond is a quiet but active girl. Her chief interests lay in church clubs. She took the General Course and planned to take up hairdressing next year.

Mary Kathleen PhilipsA friend is known in necessity.*

Mary has a nice smile for everyone and enjoys jesting. She likes to read books and also is interested in any kind of sport. Not many people know it, but she can play the piano very well. Dramatic Club 2.

Virginia Brown PierceShe'll find friends in all she meets.*

Virginia believes that her actions speak louder than her words. Her dislike for prominence is displayed by her quiet restrained manner. But according to the report of her friends she is a great sport. She is moreover an outstanding pupil in Mr. Flynn's U. S. History class. Basketball 3, 4.

Janet Madelyn PriceThe world belongs to the energetic.*

Janet is a keen, lively girl who always draws a crowd. Her favorite sports are dancing and ice and roller skating. She is rarely seen in anything but sport clothes for she hates to dress up. In her gym class she exhibits a grace that is the envy of all. Basketball 2, 3, Hockey 2, 4, Dramatic Club 3.

Allen Clare PercivalGreat, efficient minds are pleased in doing good.*

Allen is an ardent tennis devotee and has finished high in all tournaments that have been graced by his presence. He likes dancing which shows he is not wholly the bookish type. His ambition, we are told, is to be one of our future generals. French Club 3, Dramatic Club 3, 4, Junior Prom Committee 3, Tennis 4.

Rocco Charles PiccicutoA smile never fails to win friends.*

This bright-eyed person, better known as Mr. Rocco, is pleasing to all because of his everyday smile. When he does his homework is a mystery to everyone but him, nevertheless, the results are very satisfactory. But what most of us do know is that he excels in athletic activities and good sportsmanship. Relay 3.

Wallace Stanley PollockEver loyal, ever true, to the task he has to do.*

Here is a boy with brains and brawn, a rather unusual combination. He was captain of his relay team in '37, as well as one of the brain trusts of F. H. S. He has an aptitude for acting also. When Wally is about, there is never a dull moment. Dramatic Club 3, 4, Junior Prom Committee 3, Relay Team 3, Senior Class Play 4.

Frank Hammond Preston, Jr.Noble in every thought and deed.*

Frankie is an active member of the Boy Scouts. He is complaisant and honest, as all Boy Scouts should be. One of his hobbies is the manipulating of electrical motors. He seems to be following in his father's footsteps in two fields. Red and Gray, Councillor 3, 4.

Dorothy Norma ProginA merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance.*

Who ever heard of Dot's worrying? She just doesn't. Roller skating is her specialty in which she has become very proficient. When Dot leaves in June with the Class of '38, F. H. S. will miss one with a sunny disposition which is enriched with humor. Hockey Basketball, Volleyball 3.

Mary QuarellaBy her blushes you shall know her.*

Here is another of our brilliant part-timers. Mary is a rather serious student who is secretary to Mr. Hubbard. Mary can, moreover, combine work and play in the proper proportions to obtain a happy result. Skating is her favorite pastime. Volleyball 2, 3, History Club 4.

Emaline Asunda RicciA classmate sincere and true.*

Lena is liked by all because she is so full of fun. Whenever she is around, we're almost always sure to be in fits of laughter. She is kept busy as an assistant to Miss Sherwin, and she also works every afternoon at Cravedi's fruit store. Hockey 2, Volleyball 2, 3, 4 Junior Reception Committee 3, History Club 4

Joan has been a studious pupil, but manages to have her share of fun. From the beginning she has been loyal and true to the school and her friends. She was a member of our school orchestra and band and her exceptionally good work as a clarinet player helped greatly towards its success. Basketball, Ring Committee 3, Dramatic Club, Band, Orchestra 2, 3.

Martin Joseph Pucko. Jr.All cares are enemies to a happy life.*

Ah! Ah! That guttural chuckle surely sounds familiar, for who else could it be but Pucko? Pucko is one of the best known boys in the Senior Class. You may be sure to see him wherever a charming group of girls is assembled, and in the midst of them, at that!! Dramatic Club 4.

John Henry QuinnI am master of my fate.*

John is one of our brilliant classmates who make some of us look like monkeys in the class room. He likes to drive cars, and is an excellent skater. He is an ardent scientist and is heading for one of the better known Tech Schools. Dramatic Club 2.

Alvah Michael ReidaSerene, determined, kind and true.*

If you should see a tall blond boy, with a smiling face, approaching you, chances are that it is Al. Al is always on hand with a wise crack regardless of the topic of conversation. If you should be looking for someone to cheer you up, just call on Al, for he usually has a trick up his sleeve. Dramatic Club 3, Basketball, Track 4.

Axel RemalBy name and nature he can win
Success just seems to smile on him.*

If you want service with a smile, visit L'Ecuyer's market, when Axel is on duty. You'll find Axel rather quiet, but he usually has a smile for his friends and customers. Maybe if Axel can smile long enough, he will some day be head of the concern. Councillor 4.

There is never a dull moment when Fannie is around, for her original sense of humor and her contagious laugh would brighten any atmosphere. She is a commercial student and has a wide circle of friends. Her good nature made her a valuable member of our class. Dramatic Club 2, 4, French Club 3, History Club, Marshal 4.

Irja Miriam RintaShe that does good for good's sake seeks neither praise or reward.*

Irja is one of our classmates who always has a smile and a kind word for all. She was quite serious when she was studying. She is a happy-go-lucky individual, and a grand pal most of the time.

Isabelle Rita RolloBest she is liked who is alike to all.*

Isabelle is that pretty black-eyed girl who is just as nice as she looks. Underneath her happy exterior is the spirit of a good worker. When you are trying to find Isabelle look for Jeanette.

Lillie RovnoAnd still they gazed, and still their wonder grew,
That one small head could carry all she knew.*

Lillie has been throughout our school years one of our most brilliant classmates. Whether in studies, in debating, or in sports, she has managed to be A-1. One of the things that we all admire in her is her sense of fairness. She hopes to follow her sister to M. I. T. French 2, Volleyball 2, 3, 4, Hockey, Basketball 3, 4, Dramatic, Debating Clubs 2, 3, 4, President Debating Club 3, 4, Red and Gray 3, 4, Round Table, Marshal 4.

Alfred Mont Remington

*A friendship that makes the least noise,
Is very often the most precious.*

Alfred came to Fitchburg High from Teachers' College Junior High School. He had an aspiration to be a football hero, but even with his sturdy build his ambition was not satisfied. He is very mischievous and likes to play pranks.

Carmelo Nicholas Ricciuti

Strength alone knows conflict.

Melo is one of Miss Nason's enthusiastic art students. Perhaps you did not know that our class banner was designed by him. This seemingly quiet but pleasant fellow is one of the more qualitative members of the football team. Football 2, 3, 4.

Charles Alfred Richard

Of gentle soul, to human race a friend.

Charlie's big, broad-faced grin greeted us in the cafeteria where he sold candy as a part-time student. His leadership at Camp Lowe last summer helped him increase his number of good friends. Quiet in many ways, Charlie can cut up, and has many times.

Manning Oscar Rines

Sincerity is a trait of true and noble manhood.

Judging by his quietness, "Speak when spoken to," seems to be Manning's favorite motto. In traveling from South Fitchburg to school, he always takes his seat in the back of the bus, and holds his peace until one of his friends or neighbors speaks to him. Relay 3.

Pauline Bernice Roy

Her good humor is like a sunny day.

Brownie has one of the most pleasing dispositions of anyone in our class. She is a good sport in whatever position she finds herself, and in tight spots she can always relieve the tension by a hearty laugh. She is just as jolly in the class room as she is outside. Motto Committee 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Class Prophecy.

Mary Agnes Shea

The joy of youth and health her eyes displayed.

Mary is almost always seen in the company of Rita and Phyllis, so much so, that one teacher has attached to this triplet the epithet, "Three Musketeers." Although she is a quiet person, Mary is not excessively so. Her keenest enjoyment is, so far as we can discover, derived from dancing. Dramatic Club 2, Class Banner Committee 3.

Mary Jenny Shuman

I find earth not gray, but rosy.

Mary's size does not stunt her cheerful nature. She has an ever ready smile and can often be heard humming one of the latest songs. She has already secured a license to drive a car. Why is it that these small ones are always attracted to a driver's seat? Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, History Club 4.

Ella-Irene Siegle

*Fair to look upon
Nice to know.*

Ella's vivacity and her excellence in drama have made her popular in school as well as in her own community. She was an officer of the Dramatic Club and fulfilled her part capably. Besides her interest in dramatics she has found reading a very enjoyable hobby. Basketball 3, Class Dues Committee 3, Prize Speaking 2, 3, History Club, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Marshal, Senior Class Play 4.

Irving Meade Roberts

As a second Descartes or math wizard, Irving would probably call you X from habit. Tall, dark, and studious is he. His hair long and drooping in front of his eyes seemingly shuts him off from the rest of the world but he has come out of his shell long enough to make some friends worth having. Football 2.

Raymond Rodier

A faithful and honorable man.

True enough Raymond is a quiet boy, but whenever anything of interest is going on one can always find Ray an enthusiastic spectator. His ambition in life is not yet known, but those who know him have no doubt of future success.

Frank Anthony Romano

A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance.

When it comes to finding a representative of diverse talents Zip certainly fills the order. He is not only a fine dancer and a good actor but it is also said that he is a painter of above average ability. Zip very seldom is found without a broad smile or a happy grin and puts life into any affair that he attends. Relay Team 3, French Club 2, 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Business Manager Boulder 4.

Harry Richard Rovno

Knowledge is proud that he has learned so much.

To this wizard it is a crime to get a mark as low as B, (which he very seldom does) especially in such easy subjects as Trig and Math. He is also famous for his very well prepared and lengthy debates in Miss Dunn's English class. Dramatic Club 3, 4, Debating Club 4.

Mildred Helen Sigurdson

Simplicity is of all things, hardest to be copied.

Mildred is a very silent person but full of high ideals. Her beautiful platinum blond hair outrivals that of many a movie actress, and she is therefore classed among our goodlookers. She is withal an earnest student. Hockey, Basketball 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, Class Banner Committee 3, Readers' Guild 3, 4, History Club 4.

Ledeor Skorko

Speech is silver, silence is golden.

Ledeor has a rare interest in that difficult language, Lithuanian, which she plans to master in future years. Although not very active in school sports and activities, she enjoys hiking and baseball. She finds postcard collecting an interesting diversion. Dramatic Club, History Club 4.

Eva Smith

True to her words, her work, her friends.

Eva is one of the brightest members of the Commercial Course, and will make somebody a fine stenographer. She works in the school office every other week where she has proved herself a very efficient helper. She is notable for her demure demeanor and softly smiling eyes.

Beatrice Sontag

*Kind and quiet, always neat
She'll find friends in all she meets.*

Beatrice is the proud possessor of a very pleasing personality. She is full of fun and easily wins many friends. She is a most diligent movie fan and also an ardent gum chewer. Studying isn't one of Beatrice's high points. Dramatic Club 3.

Stanley Robert Russell

Men of few words are the best men.

Rob, one of the well-known part-timers, has the reputation of being just about our best natured boy. He seems to have quite a way with the women, and a few of the female hearts beat a little faster when he breezes by. However, he is an excellent tennis player and a formidable opponent to any who feel themselves gifted along that line. Junior-Senior Reception Committee 3.

Michael Patrick Ryan

Knowledge comes, but wisdom lingers.

Although Mike is younger than most of his classmates, he is at the top of his class. His great imagination and vivid style have won for him the editorship of our school magazine. He is known to write poems as well as stories. Color Committee 3, Dramatic Club 3, 4, Red and Gray 2, 3, 4.

Robert Fletcher St. Lawrence

*With sparkling bits of humor
He drives the cares away.*

Bobby is one of our class jesters. Whenever there is mischief afoot, he always seems to be one of those present. His hair cuts and style of clothing have been some of the most unusual in our class. Perhaps these account for his popularity with the other sex. Junior-Senior Reception 3, Dramatic Club 4.

Edmond Serhart Schlichter

*A day for toil, and hour for sport,
But for a friend, Life is too short.*

One often wondered how Slick ever found time to study to obtain average marks, because of the extra time he put into his personal labors. Slick thinks more of earning spending money, than doing school work.

Ruth Millicent Speed

*Whate'er she did was done with so much ease,
In her alone 'twas natural to please.*

We will always remember her smile, that of the famed Cheshire Cat. Having done her work conscientiously, she need have nothing to fear from the future. As she is an attractive brunette and of a sociable nature, her friends are numerous. Councillor 2, Dramatic and Debating Clubs 3, 4, Class Dues Committee 3, Marshal 4, Write-up Committee Boulder 4.

Eleanor Clara Stevenson

A girl of hopes and forward looking mind.

Eleanor is a quiet, capable, and calm member of our class. Smacker, as Westminster knows her, never needs to worry about her report card, for high marks are a habit with her. Eleanor worked part-time at Mansur's Ice Cream Parlor; maybe that's why it's so crowded on Sunday. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, French Club 3, 4, Basketball, Marshal, Write-up Committee Boulder 4.

Esther Jane Stockwell

Honest endeavor is always sure of a reward.

Esther is one of the quiet, innocent members of our class, but has a remarkable sense of humor. A great sportsman or sports-woman, she likes football, basketball, and tennis. Being a student of the Commercial Course, Esther hopes to be a secretary in the future.

Theda Elizabeth Stockwell

*A merry twinkle of the eye
A sunny smile as she passes by.*

Theda is a very faithful attendant at every school function. Her hobbies are collecting dog statues and ornaments and dancing. When Kendall the Caterer has needed spare girls, Theda has proved her capability as a good waitress. Theda intends to be a social worker, and we're sure she'll make a good one. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, History Club 4.

Aldo John Secino

*A kindly and obliging youth
A smile that always wins.*

Al, a tall, dark, and handsome boy, has always enjoyed a goodly number of friends. One of these friends does not like to have him go out with the boys. He is interested in all social activities.

Orlando Anthony Secino

*In everything that's going
He plays an active part.*

Jerry is classed as one of our smoothies. Not active on any athletic team, he finds diversion on the dance floor. Being one of our well dressed boys, Jerry should become a designer of men's clothes. His personality is emphasized in the ever present smile he has for us.

Irving Philip Shattuck

Always agreeable and cheerful is he.

When one wishes to find Irving, the best advice is to look where something really exciting is taking place, for this fellow is always in the midst of some big doings. Because he is always looking for something to do, he is one of the hardest persons to follow that we know. Track 2, 3.

Isadore Morris Silverman

A man of action.

Izzie, at one time, suffered from a very common disease called workophobia. He has, however, cured himself, and is now working capably, efficiently, and also unassisted. His friends may, on the spur of the moment, laugh skeptically at this, but watch his dust.

Elizabeth Despene Svolis

A keen wit, a wise look, and an answer always ready.

Pep, that's Lefty. From the beginning of the day until the end, she keeps hopping around making things lively. She is also kept busy in Candyland where she can be found waiting on customers.

Lorraine Agnes Taylor

*She's here, she's there, she's all about
Lots of pep and a real good scout.*

Lorraine and the Brick Mill have something in common. Her sparkling personality has drawn to her many, whom anyone would be proud to call their friends. Healthy in both body and spirit, she typifies the true American girl. Hockey 4.

Cecile Bellma Thibault

If there is a virtue at which we should aim, it is cheerfulness.

Cecile may be small in stature but when she opens her mouth and begins to talk there is no end to her. She truly has the gift of gab. She knows all the news in Cleghorn. Her pleasing personality probably accounts for her many friends. Hockey 2, Basketball, Volleyball 2, 3, 4.

Claire Pauline Thibert

Efficiency is correctness itself.

Claire is not without friends. In class she has delighted many by her witty outbursts. Our capable editor has been active in many school affairs. The mailman certainly is kept busy carrying to Claire, from B. C., letters which she eagerly devours. Dramatic Club, French Club 2, 3, 4, Debating Club 3, 4, Junior Prom Committee 3, Class Book 4.

Paul Einar Siren

*With philosophic cast of mind,
In leisure he treads on.*

In his first year in high school Paul showed promise of becoming an excellent football player. This was no wonder as he always has been very athletic, but because of his age he was forced to leave the team.

Michael Aristotle Spylios

*A ready and steady chap,
He wends his way along.*

Mike, who hails from the West End, can usually be found at his father's fruit store in Leominster, or running around a basketball court. Mike has been playing basketball since his grammar school days and is one of the mainstays of the high school squad. Relay Team 3, Basketball 3, 4, Track 4.

Peter Louis Stathis

A will to do that ne'er admits defeat.

Peter's six feet of well-developed brawn is accompanied by a deep, sonorous, bass voice. Added to this he has a creative mind in the field of electricity. Peter's friends speak often of his willingness to help in any worthy task.

Einar Stolhandske

For 'tis the mind that maketh the body rich.

Swede is one of those quiet boys that you have to know to appreciate. His ability as a gymnast was clearly shown in Mr. Adler's gym classes. School books, as far as Swede is concerned, are few and far between.

Marie Joan Viggiano

Always light hearted and content.

Marie has a friendly disposition and a happy word for everyone. Lessons do not bother her, but she always has them done. She is a great athlete, of whom we can always be proud. To her own circle of friends she is always a source of fun. Volleyball 2, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 4.

Aili Velma Waltanen

Phoebe is a very jolly member of our class. It is by her perpetual smile that we will always remember her. She will be long remembered also for her monologues and other famous dramatizations given at Dramatic Club meetings. After graduation, Phoebe hopes to become a nurse. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Write-up Committee Boulder 4, Basketball, History Club, Class Prophecy 4.

Ellen Wannop

Eyes that were made to flirt with.

Ellen is a small miss you may see romping about the school with a mischievous look in her eyes. She has a very pleasing personality and is always sure to provide plenty of entertainment for those around her. You may be sure to see Ellen at all school dances and many outside ones as well. Hockey, Dramatic Club 3, Art Club, History Club 4.

Doris Wazal

Dot is rather quiet, but is a jolly friend when one gets to know her. She believes that silence is a virtue. Dot is a lover of outdoor sports, notably tennis. Her good nature and genial manner have won her many friends. Dramatic Club 2, Basketball 2, 3, Hockey 2, 3, 4.

Kenneth Joseph Sweeney

*His fingers shame the ivory keys
They dance so light along.*

Kenney is one of the more studious boys of our class. It is not for his studying that he is famous, but because he has made his mark in our Hall of Fame by the way he tinkles the ivories. Ring Committee 3, Debating Club 2, 3, 4, Dramatic Club 2, 4, Councillor, Orchestra 4.

Anthony Vincent Tasca

An ounce of wit is worth a pound of sorrow.

Tony is one of our darling little lads who would sink into obscurity, were it not for that black curly hair of his. We understand that he sails around in a big car. Without doubt there are many of the opposite sex who would like to ride with Tony (not because of the nice car, either). Councillor 2, Thanksgiving Dance Committee 4.

Norman Joseph Thibault

Thanks to the man who invented sleep.

Norman, although diminutive in size, is not backward in anything. Numbered among his chief interests are girls and movies. He has been a persistent cut-up, especially in gym.

Joseph Torcoletti

*Rugged as the mighty oak,
And unsurpassed in sports.*

Monday mornings Joe came to school with the student body at his feet. By spectacular plays in our football games, he became one of the school's heroes. Although he is a most unpretentious student, he has a lot of what it takes. Baseball 2, Football 2, 3, 4.

Florence Edith Wells

Cheerfulness smooths the road of life.

Edith is one of our best basketball players and is able to compete with any boy in the school. Swimming is another of her hobbies. She can keep afloat in the water as well as she can sink baskets. During the long, cold winter evenings, she indulges her love for attractive things by making lovely scrap books. Basketball 3.

Charlotte Evelyn Wheeler

Joy is the mainspring of Nature.

Charlotte is a quiet person with a shining personality. She likes all sports but swimming and skating are her favorites. Every minute of her spare time is spent at a movie theatre. We think Charlotte intends to become a secretary after she graduates.

Irene Elna White

Rene is a lively girl who never wastes a precious minute. Skiing and skating not only keep her busy during the cold winter days, but apply that rosy tint to her cheeks. Her pep, vim, and vigor, have made her one of the best liked members of the class. Some of her precious time is devoted to Girl Scouts in which she does splendid work. Basketball 2, 3, 4, Class Banner Committee 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Hockey 4.

Janice Eleanor Whitmore

Thy gentle voice my spirit can cheer.

Janice is known about school for her mild, restrained manner and her pleasant, agreeable personality. Janice stands out as a musical enthusiast. She often charms her audience with her skillful playing of the violin in the school orchestra. Janice displayed her vocal abilities in her duets with her friend Betty Lesure. French Club 2, Class Color Committee 3, Dramatic Club, Orchestra 2, 3, 4, History Club, Write-up Committee Boulder 4.

Leo Arthur Tousignant

*A keen wit, a wise look
And an answer always ready.*

Leo is one of the tiny boys of our class. Smallness has been a disadvantage to him because aspiring to be a good athlete he would have liked to participate in more school sports. Leo plans to continue school and become a good machinist someday.

Edward James Towle

The noblest mind, the best contentment has.

Eddie is a diminutive member of our class who seldom makes his presence known. Besides being a very good student, Eddie is likewise a fine sportsman. His great interest in baseball inclines us to believe that someday he may represent our class in a big league.

Richard Francis Vincent

He made each day's work a source of new growth in power and appreciation.

Dick is a most ardent debater so watch your step when he is around for he might pick you up on what you say. He also possesses the qualities to make another Don Budge and is a feared rival in any of the local tennis tournaments. Dramatic Club 2, Debating Club 2, 3, 4, Red and Gray Board 3, 4.

Walter Leon Welch

A tender heart, a will inflexible.

Walt, with his eternal spark of devilry will finally give the teachers a real vacation, unless he takes a P. G. course. He has adapted his ways to the new high school, and has worn a new trail to the office. When his shadow passes over the door sill for the last time, he will be missed by many. Dramatic Club 3, 4, History Club, Marshal, Senior Class Play 4.

Virginia Winchester

Her dark eyes, how eloquent.

Ginny's favorite pastime is knitting, but we doubt very much if she sits home nights just to keep the yarn company. She is one of those gals who are popular with the other sex, and so we must conclude that her knitting must be neglected at times. Dramatic Club 2, 3.

Pauline Anne Wise

Enough of humor does she find.

Pauline is one of our most attractive girls. This accounts for the many admiring glances that are cast her way. She admits that studying is not her favorite pastime. We wonder why Pauline spends all her available weekends in Webster, Mass. Dramatic Club 2.

Helen Ann Witikka

A smile with an intent to do mischief.

Burps, we hope there is no significance, is one of those dashing blondes in whom our class takes pride. She loves to dance and takes an active part in all sports. On further investigation we also find that she has a pet weakness for striped socks! Hockey 2, 3, Ring Committee 3, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Readers' Guild 3, 4, Basketball 4.

Rita Louise Wood

Her ways are pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

Rita is a girl with a very likeable personality and is very pleasant company. This year Rita has worked every other week for Miss Brown, as she was one of our part-time students. She is often seen around school with her friend, Phyllis. Class Color Committee 3.

Richard Warren Wentworth

Character is a perfectly educated will.

Dick knows a good deal about art and regardless of type, be it architecture, mechanical drawing, or just plain pencil pushing, he is able to put a little grace and character into his work. He intends to be a commercial artist, and has devoted much time to that end. He is sportive among friends, but quiet and reserved among strangers. Ring Committee 3, Councillor 3.

Harry James Whittemore

He hath every wish to smile, no need to sigh.

Harry is one of the quietest boys in our class. Seldom does his quiet and reserved disposition ever change. Very few teachers have ever found him unprepared in his studies. Dramatic Club 4.

Gerald Wiederlight

Thou art a fellow of sincere effort.

This light-hearted, bland-countenanced soul, would not, for all the world, harm a fly. Good-natured and unsuspicious, he is the victim of many a cruel-hearted prankster. Jerry has made many friends whom he deserves to have, keep, and cherish the memories of, the rest of his life. Dramatic Club 4.

Willard Arthur Wilder

*We may take Fancy for a companion,
But must follow Reason as our guide.*

Although Willard is rather a quiet boy in school, he manages to do his amount of cutting-up in certain classes. Every other week he is a helper in the Superintendent's office, and his capability should be well appreciated there, as it has been in high school.

Bertha Cora Yando

She has a head to contrive, a heart to resolve, and a hand to execute.

The name Yando, in our class, is synonymous with both activity and responsibility. Bert's readiness to help has put her on intimate terms with both teachers and pupils. Her oratorical abilities and good nature did much to stimulate the Debating Club meetings. Volleyball 2, Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4, Basketball 2, 3, 4, Junior-Senior Reception 3, Hockey 3, 4, Debating Club 3, 4, Secretary Girls' Debating Club, History Club, Round Table, Chairman Write-up Committee Boulder, Marshal 4.

Sarah Ann Zichelle

*Laughing eyes, a merry smile,
And a very happy heart.*

Sarah, although a quiet girl, has a decided interest in sports. She likes winter sports but tennis is her specialty. She took the Commercial Course. Hockey 2, Volleyball 3, Basketball 4.

Phyllis Mary Zink

Silence is more beautiful than any song.

Phyllis is a quiet but cheerful girl. She obtained a good experience in business while working part-time for Mr. Howard. She was a valuable member of the Class Ring Committee in her junior year.

John Alfred Wilkinson

*No worries ever trouble him,
He's always light of heart.*

Johnny is one of the Valentinos. We wonder whether it is because of his melodious voice or his ability as a life-guard. We also know that Johnny is a drawing card at the Sweater Shop on Saturdays. He hopes that the State Teachers' College will be his address next year. Marshal 4.

William Howard WilliamsSpeech is great, but silence is greater.*

Billy, our mighty midget, occasionally when he is in a hurry, can be seen crawling through other people's legs when we're passing between periods. As a skater and hockey player there are only a choice few in the school that can match their skill with him. His quiet, unassuming air has made him well liked by all. Junior-Senior Relay 3.

Code Joseph WillinghamIt is a friendly heart that has plenty of friends.*

Height gives one an air of superiority. This can be applied to Code as he stands over six feet. We all envy him when he wants something on the shelf in his locker as his height enables him to get things without stretching.

Edward YapchianWhile we're alive, let's live.*

Eddie loves the outdoors far too well to do much studying, although he is ambitious and a hard worker. He has an attractive personality and holds in his head a most amazing store of knowledge, which although not entirely thorough, is practically inexhaustible. This makes for most interesting discussions and arguments.

Ten Years From Now Will You Remember

1938, our first and last year in the New High School—Monday morning assemblies and, "Please pass to your home rooms."—The cafeteria with Mr. Butler as Clean-up man No. 1—Brockleman's peanut vender, Wallie Pollock—The Health Suite, the most popular place in school—When Ella Siegle held you spellbound—The time Dick Morrell and Al Reida played "Shadow"—Kenney Sweeney's piano playing—Eleanor Pearson and "When Irish Eyes are Smiling"—Luncheon jokes and El Nash—Pleasant afternoons with Miss Haskins in good old 201-202—Shine Coates and his bus—When Bobby Crocker wore a uniform at the Universal—Esther Moses' red finger nails—Teachers—Friendships—and all the swell times we've had together?

Class Whisperings

Let's take your homework.
He's a swell fellow.
What did you get for an answer?
Did he call you up last night?
What did you get on your report card?
Lend me a dime.
What were some of the questions on the test?
Have you answered that note yet?
Did you have a date last night?
Got an extra pencil?

Our Noah's Ark

"The animals went in two by two."
Phyllis Carpenter and Dickie Gale,
Jessie Allen and Zip Romano,
Lydia Huttula and Melvin Hawes,
Billie Daulton and Walter Welch,
Dolly Maggs and Howie Marshall,
Edna Charrier and Alex Bean,
Helen Flaherty and Al Secino,
Martha Jones and Robert Johnson.

Shine Coates—"Will you lend me a dime for a sandwich?"

Luscious Pandiscio—"Let's see the sandwich."

Pet Peeves

Miss Alice W. Brown—People passing in front of her.
Mr. Harwood—F. D. R.
Miss Haskins—Bad weather.
Miss Ranney—People who talk in church.
Miss Dunn—A door bell and a telephone bell ringing simultaneously.
Mr. Hubbard—People who crumple candy papers in a theatre.

Betty Lesure—"Do you dance, Mello?"
Mello Ricciuti—"Half way."
Betty—"Why, what do you mean?"
Mello—"I can hold on, but I can't move my feet."

Heart Throbs

Getting home late.
Going to the dentist.
When Mr. Chalmers stops you.
Waiting for an exam.
Please report.
Waiting for report cards.
Your first speech in assembly.
Going to class without your lesson.
Skipping school.
Sessions.

Station WHY

Ding, Dong, Dumbells!!! This is Station WHY broadcasting from Anyplace. We are now ready for our regular morning Sitting Down Exercises. Your instructor is the eminent authority on bone relaxation, Professor Ernie Nole.—“Good morning my fine boney friends. Are we ready, everyone lie flat on his or her back with windows closed and mouth wide open, very well, now begin.”

Sorry, ladies and gentlemen of the radio audience, but we are interrupting this program to bring you some important news from Washington by our News Contemplator Phillip Marriot—Hello, Hello, Hi! Washington, D. C. The President has just returned from a fishing trip. He caught two shiners. Next broadcast of news, when we get it.

Melodies Hour is now on the air. Let's hear from Alfonse Gale and his famous Dinky Hotel Orchestra. Dolly Maggs vocalizing. I hope you like it! Now that hot master of swing, Ezra Osborne and his Zippy Casino Band. And in concussion Bob Nurnberger and his swing band.

Often Heard Saying

Know any new jokes?
 Oh, he's a temperamental.
 Viva Mussolini.
 Aw, you're kidding.
 Hey, you.
 Talking? Not me, Miss Dunn.
 Here, hold these.
 You got me.
 All right, Helen.

John Quinn to waiter, “Ginger ale.”
 Waiter, “Pale?”
 Quinn, “No, just a glass.”

Mr. Butler, “Your answer is about as clear mud.”
 Norman Thibault, “Well, it covers the ground, doesn't it?”

THE PASSING HOUR

Blessed is this hour wherein we part
With fruits of life's tree, yet to come,
For all we are, or hope at length to be,
Depends upon this moment and this heart.
Today the soul is either good or evil;
'Tis now that virtue may exchange with ill,
Tomorrow is eternity;—uncertain,
Yet we possess the present and the will.

More precious than the peaceful, rose filled bower,
More costly than the most exquisite jewel,
More valuable than famed and noble volumes
Is this the present, swiftly passing hour.

Helen Flaherty.

CO-OPERATIVE PRINCIPLES

1. Universal in scope, purpose, and spirit. Open to all.
2. Democratic nature. Ownership and control vested in the consumers themselves. One man, one vote.
3. Equal rights and service to all. Justice and fairness in all dealings. Service charged on the basis of cost. Each entitled to what he pays. Profits to no one.
4. Economy in operations. System for efficiency. Eliminate waste, duplicity, and useless work.
5. Publicity of all facts. No falsehood, concealment or corruption permitted.
6. Unity of consumers for economic improvement by collective action.
7. Liberty to all. Voluntary joining and patronage. No interference with the personal rights, religious belief, or political adherence.

1938 Class Clock

will be placed

in our store window some time in June. Every senior's name will appear on the clock dial. The clock will be wound so it will stop some time during the day of graduation.

The minute hand will stop at a Senior Girl's name and she will receive a fine high-grade bracelet watch.—The hour hand will stop at a Senior Boy's name and he will receive a good strap watch. If the winner already has a watch and it was purchased here, she or he will receive $25.00 in cash.
